(f) to advise the stock exchange of the date of the board meeting at which the declaration or recommendation of a dividend for the issue or right or bonus share will be considered;

(g) to recommend or declare all dividends and/or cash bonuses at least five days before the commencement of the closure of its transfer books or the record date fixed for the purpose and to advise the stock exchange in writing of all dividends and/or cash bonuses recommended or declared immediately after a meeting of the board of the company has been held to finalise the same;

(h) to notify the stock exchange of any material change in the general character or nature of the company's business;

(i) to notify the stock exchange of any change-

(i) in the company's directorate by death, resignation, removal or otherwise,

(ii) of managing director, managing agent or secretaries and treasurers,

(iii) of auditors appointed to audit the books and accounts of the company;

(j) to forward to the stock exchange copies of statutory and annual reports and audited accounts as soon as issued, including director's report;

(k) to forward to the stock exchange as soon as they are issued, copies of all other notices and circulars sent to the shareholders including proceedings of ordinary and extraordinary general meetings of the company and to file with the stock exchange certified copies of resolutions of the company as soon as such resolutions become effective;

(l) to notify the stock exchange prior to intimating the shareholders, of any new issue of securities whether by way of right, privilege, bonus or otherwise and the manner in which it is proposed to offer or allot the same;

(m) to notify the stock exchange in the event of re-issue of any forfeited securities or the issue of securities held in reserve for future issue;

(n) to notify the stock exchange of any other alteration of capital including calls;

(o) to close the transfer books only for the purpose of declaration of dividend or issue of right or bonus shares or for such other purposes as the stock exchange may agree and to give notice to the stock exchange as many days in advance as the exchange may from time to time reasonably prescribe, stating the dates of closure of its transfer books (or, when the transfer books are not to be closed, the date fixed for taking a record of its shareholders or debenture holders) and specifying the purpose or purposes for which the transfer books are to be closed (or the record is to be taken); and in the case of a right or bonus issue to so close the transfer books or fix a record date only after sanctions of the competent authority subject to which the issue is proposed to be made have been duly obtained, unless the exchange agrees otherwise;

(p) to forward to the stock exchange an annual return immediately after each annual general meeting of at least ten principal holders of each class of security of the company along with particulars as to the number of shares or debentures held by, and address of, each such holder;

(q) to grant to shareholders the right of renunciation in all cases of issue of rights, privileges and benefits and to allow them reasonable time not being less than four weeks within which to record, exercise, or renounce such rights, privileges and benefits, and to issue, where necessary, coupons or fractional certificates or provide for the payment of the equivalent of the value of the fractional right in cash unless the company in general meeting or the stock exchange agrees otherwise;

(r) to promptly notify the stock exchange-

(i) of any action which will result in the redemption, cancellation or retirement in whole or in part of any securities listed on the exchange,

(ii) of the intention to make a drawing of such securities, intimating at the same time the date of the drawing and the period of the closing of the transfer books (or the date of the striking of the balance) for the drawing,

(iii) of the amount of securities outstanding after any drawing has been made;

(s) to intimate the stock exchange any other information necessary to enable the shareholders to appraise the position of the company and to avoid the establishment of a false market in the shares of the company;

(t) that in the event of the application for listing being granted, such listing shall be subject to the rules and bye-laws of the exchange in force from time to time and that the company will comply within a reasonable time, with such further listing requirements as may be promulgated by the exchange as a general condition for new listings.

(4) A fresh application for listing will be necessary in respect of all new issues desired to be dealt in, provided that, where such new securities are identical in all respects with those already listed, admission to dealings will be granted on the company intimating to the stock exchange particulars of such new issues.

Explanation.- Shares are identical in all respects only if-

(a) they are of the same nominal value and the same amount per share has been called up;

(b) they are entitled to dividend at the same rate and for the same period, so that at the next ensuing distribution, the dividend payable on each share will amount to exactly the same sum, net and gross; and

(c) they carry the same rights in all other respects.

(5) A recognised stock exchange may suspend or withdraw admission to dealings in the securities of a company or body corporate either for a breach of or non-compliance with, any of the conditions of admission to dealings or for any other reason, to be recorded in writing, which in the opinion of the stock exchange justifies such action:

Provided, however, that no such action shall be taken by a stock exchange without affording to the company or body corporate concerned a reasonable opportunity by a notice in writing, stating the reasons, to show cause against the proposed action:

<sup>10</sup>[Provided further that where a recognised stock exchange has withdrawn admission to dealings in any security, or where suspension of admission to dealings has continued for a period exceeding three months, the company or body corporate concerned may prefer an appeal to the Securities Appellate Tribunal constituted under section 15K of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (15 of 1992), and the procedure laid down under the Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Appeal to Securities Appellate Tribunal)

Rules, 2000 shall apply to such appeal. The Securities Appellate Tribunal may, after giving the stock exchange an opportunity of being heard, vary or set aside the decision of the stock exchange and its orders shall be carried out by the stock exchange.]

(6) A recognised stock exchange may, either at its own discretion or shall in accordance with the orders of the <sup>2</sup>[ Securities and Exchange Board of India] under sub-rule (5) restore or re-admit to dealings any securities suspended or withdrawn from the list.

<sup>11</sup>[(6A) All the requirements with respect to listing prescribed by these rules, shall, so far as they may be, also apply to a body corporate constituted by an Act of Parliament or any State legislature:]

<sup>12</sup>[Provided that a recognised stock exchange may relax the requirement of offer to the public for subscription of at least twenty-five per cent of each class or kind of securities issued in respect of a body corporate referred to in this sub- rule with the previous approval of the <sup>2</sup>[ Securities and Exchange Board of India] and also subject to such instructions as that <sup>13</sup>[Board] may issue in this behalf from time to time.]

(7) The <sup>2</sup>[Securities and Exchange Board of India] may, at its own discretion or on the recommendation of a recognised stock exchange, waive or relax the strict enforcement of any or all of the requirements with respect to listing prescribed by these rules.

(n) A list of the highest ten holders of units of each scheme of the company as on the date of application along with particulars as to the number of units held by and the address of each such holder.

(o) Particulars of units of the scheme for which permission to deal is applied for :

Provided that a recognised stock exchange may either generally by its bye-laws or in any particular case call for such further particulars or documents as it deems proper.

(2) Apart from complying with such other terms and conditions as may be laid down by a recognised stock exchange, an applicant shall satisfy the stock exchange that :

(a) Its articles of association provide for the following among others-

(i) that the company shall use a common form of transfer of units of a particular scheme;

(ii) that the fully paid units issued under the scheme will be free from all lien, while in the case of partly paid units the company's lien, if any, will be restricted to moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such units;

(iii) that any amount paid-up in advance of calls on any units may carry interest but shall not entitle the holder of the unit to participate in respect thereof, in a return subsequently declared;

(iv) there will be no forfeiture of unclaimed returns before the claim becomes barred by law;

(v) that option or right to call of units shall not be given to any person except with the sanction of the company in general meeting :

Provided that a recognised stock exchange may provisionally admit to dealings the units of a scheme which undertakes to amend its articles of association at its next general meeting so as to fulfil the foregoing requirements and agrees to act in the meantime strictly in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(b) At least twenty-five per cent of the units or any other instrument of a scheme issued by the company was offered to the public for subscription through advertisement in newspapers for a period not less than two days and not more than ninety days, and that applications received in pursuance of such offer were allotted fairly and unconditionally :

Provided that a recognised stock exchange may relax this requirement, with the previous approval of the Securities and Exchange Board of India in respect of a Government company within the meaning of section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) and subject to such instructions as the Securities and Exchange Board of India may issue in this behalf from time to time.

Explanation.- Where any part of the units or any other instruments sought to be listed have been or are agreed to be taken up by the Central Government, a State Government, development or investment agency of a State Government, Industrial Development Bank of India, Industrial Finance Corporation of India, Industrial Credit and Investment Corporation of India Limited, Life Insurance Corporation of India, General Insurance Corporation of India and its subsidiaries, namely, the National Insurance Company Limited, the New India Assurance Company Limited, the Oriental Insurance Company Limited and the United Insurance Company Limited, or Unit Trust of India, the total subscription to the units or any other instrument, whether by one or more of such bodies, shall not form part of the twenty-five per cent of the units or any other instrument to be offered to the public.

(3) A company applying for listing of a scheme shall, as a condition precedent, undertake, inter alia,-

(a) (i) that letters of allotment of units or any other instrument will be issued simultaneously and that, in the event of its being impossible to issue letters of regret at the same time, a notice to that effect will be inserted in the press so that it will appear on the morning after the letters of allotment have been posted;

(ii) that letters of right will be issued simultaneously;

(iii) that letters of allotment, acceptance or rights will be serially numbered, printed on good quality paper and, examined and signed by a responsible officer of the company and that whenever possible, they will contain the distinctive numbers of the units or any other instrument to which they relate;

(iv) that letters of allotment and renounceable letters of right will contain a proviso for splitting and that, when so required by the exchange, the form of renunciation will be printed on the back of or attached to the letters of allotment and letters of right;

(v) that letters of allotment and letters of right will state how the next payment of interest or return on the units or any other instrument will be calculated;

(b) to issue, when so required, receipts for all units and any other instrument deposited with it whether for registration, sub-division, exchange or for other purposes; and not to charge any fees for registration of transfers, for sub-division and consolidation of units and any other instrument and for sub-division of letters of allotment, renounceable letters of right, and split, consolidation, renewal and transfer receipts into denominations of the market unit of trading;

(c) to issue, when so required, consolidation and renewal units or any other instrument in denominations of the market unit of trading, to split units or any other instrument, letters of allotment, letters of right, and transfer, renewal, consolidation and split receipts into smaller units, to split call notices, issue duplicates thereof and not require any discharge on call receipts and to accept the discharge of members of stock exchange on split, consolidation and renewal receipts as good and sufficient without insisting on the discharge of the registered holders;

(d) when documents are lodged for sub-division or consolidation or renewal through the clearing house of the exchange :

(i) to accept the discharge of an official of the stock exchange clearing house on the company's split receipts and consolidation receipts and renewal receipts as good and sufficient discharge without insisting on the discharge of the registered holders; and

(ii) to verify when the company is unable to issue units or any other instruments or split receipt or consolidation receipts or renewal receipts immediately on lodgement whether the discharge of the registered holders, on the documents lodged for sub-division or consolidation or renewal and their signatures on the relative transfers are in order;

(e) on production of the necessary documents by unit holders or by members of the exchange, to make on transfers an endorsement to the effect that the power of attorney or probate or letters of administration or death certificate or similar other document has been duly exhibited to and registered by the company;

(f) to issue certificates in respect of units or any other instrument lodged for transfer within a period of one month of the date of lodgement of transfer and to issue balance units or any other instrument within the same period where the transfer is accompanied by a larger unit or any other instrument certificate;

(g) to advise the stock exchange of the date of the board meeting at which the declaration or recommendation of a return or the issue or right or bonus units or any other instrument will be considered;

(h) to recommend or declare all returns and/or cash bonuses at least five days before the commencement of the closure of its transfer books or the record date fixed for the purpose and to advise the stock exchange in writing of all returns and/or cash bonuses recommended or declared immediately after a meeting of the board of the company has been held to finalise the same;

(i) to notify the stock exchange of any change-

(i) in the company's directorate by death, resignation, removal or otherwise,

(ii) of managing director,

(iii) of auditors appointed to audit the books and account of the company;

(j) to forward to the stock exchange copies of statutory and annual reports and audited accounts of such scheme as soon as issued, including directors' report;

(k) to forward to the stock exchange as soon as they are issued copies of all other notices and circulars sent to the unit/other instrument holders regarding any important development or resolutions passed by the company affecting the performance of the scheme and to file with the stock exchange certified copies of resolutions of the company as soon as such resolutions become effective;

(l) to notify the stock exchange prior to intimating the unit/any other instrument holders, of any new issue of units/other instruments whether by way of right, privilege, bonus or otherwise and the manner in which it is proposed to offer or allot the same;

(m) to notify the stock exchange in the event of re-issue of any forfeited units/other instruments or the issue of units/other instruments held in reserve for future issue;

(n) to notify the stock exchange of any other alteration of unit capital including calls;

(o) to close the transfer books only for the purpose of declaration of returns or issue of right or bonus units/any other instruments in the scheme or for such other purposes as the stock exchange may agree and to give notice to the stock exchange as many days in advance as the exchange may from time to time reasonably prescribe, stating the dates of closure of its transfer books or, when the transfer books are not to be closed, the date fixed for taking a record of its unit/other instrument holders and specifying the purpose or purposes for which the transfer books are to be closed or the record is to be taken; and in the case of a right or bonus issue to so close the transfer books or fix a record date only after the sanctions of the competent authority, subject to which the issue is proposed to be made, have been duly obtained, unless the exchange agrees otherwise;

(p) to forward to the stock exchange an annual return immediately after the preparation of annual accounts of at least ten principal holders of each class of units/any other instruments of the company along with particulars as to the number of units/any other instrument held by, and address of, each such holder;

(q) to grant to unit/any other instrument holders of the scheme the right of renunciation in all cases of issue of rights, privileges and benefits and to allow them reasonable time, not being less than four weeks, within which to record, exercise, or renounce such rights, privileges and benefits, and to issue, where necessary, coupons or fractional certificates or provide for the payment of the equivalent of the value of the fractional right in cash unless the company in general meeting or the stock exchange agrees otherwise;

(r) to promptly notify the stock exchange-

(i) of any action which will result in the redemption, cancellation or retirement in whole or in part of any unit/other instrument listed on the exchange;

(ii) of the intention to make a drawing of such unit/other instrument intimating at the same time the date of the drawing and the period of the closing of the transfer books (or the date of the striking off the balance) for the drawing;

(iii) of the amount of units/other instruments outstanding after any drawing has been made;

(s) to intimate the stock exchange any other information necessary to enable the unit/any other instrument holders to appraise the position of the scheme and to avoid the establishment of a false market in the units/any other instruments of the company;

(t) that in the event of the application for listing being granted, such listing shall be subject to the rules and bye-laws of the exchange in force from time to time and that the company will comply within a reasonable time, with such further listing requirements as may be promulgated by the exchange as a general condition for new listings.

(4) A fresh application for listing will be necessary in respect of all new schemes desired to be dealt in :

Provided that, where such new units/other instruments are identical in all respects with those already listed, admission to dealing will be granted on the company intimating to the stock exchange particulars of such new schemes.

Explanation.- Units/any other instruments are identical in all respects only if-

(a) they are issued under the same scheme;

(b) they are of the same nominal value and the same amount per unit/other instruments has been called up;

(c) they are entitled to returns at the same rate and for the same period, so that at the next ensuing distribution, the return payable on each unit/other issue will amount to exactly the same sum, net and gross; and

(d) they carry the same rights in all other respects.

(5) A recognised stock exchange may suspend or withdraw admission to dealings in the units/other instruments of a scheme of a company or body corporate either for a breach of or non-compliance with, any of the conditions of admission to dealings or for any other reason, to be recorded in writing, which in the opinion of the stock exchange justifies such action :

Provided, however, that no such action shall be taken by a stock exchange without affording to the company or body corporate concerned a reasonable opportunity by a notice in writing, stating the reasons, to show cause against the proposed action :

Provided further that where a recognised stock exchange has withdrawn admission to dealings in any unit/other instrument of a collective investment scheme, or where suspension of admission to dealings has continued for a period exceeding three months, the company or body corporate concerned may prefer an appeal to the Securities Appellate Tribunal constituted under section 15K of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (15 of 1992), and the procedure laid down under the Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Appeal to Securities Appellate Tribunal) Rules, 2000 shall apply to such appeal. The Securities Appellate Tribunal may, after giving the stock exchange an opportunity of being heard, vary or set aside the decision of the stock exchange and thereupon the orders of the Securities Appellate Tribunal shall be carried out by the stock exchange.

(6) A recognised stock exchange may, either at its own discretion or shall in accordance with the orders of the Securities Appellate Tribunal under sub-rule (5) restore or readmit to dealings any units/other instruments suspended or withdrawn from the list.

(7) All the requirements with respect to listing prescribed by these rules, shall, so far as they may be, also apply to a body corporate constituted by an Act of Parliament or any State Legislature :

Provided that a recognised stock exchange may relax the requirement of offer to the public for subscription of at least twenty-five per cent of the units or any other instrument of a collective investment scheme issued in respect of a body corporate referred to in this sub-rule with the previous approval of the Securities and Exchange Board of India and also subject to such instructions as the Securities and Exchange Board of India may issue in this behalf from time to time.

(8) The Securities and Exchange Board of India may, at its own discretion or on the recommendation of a recognised stock exchange, waive or relax the strict enforcement of any or all of the requirements with respect of listing prescribed by these rules.]

<sup>15</sup>[21. Delisting of securities.--
